

PTSA Council Mission Statement

- Bloomington, MN

Promote the welfare of children and youth in the home, school, and community.

Encourage healthy standards of home life.

Cultivate closer relations between home and school so that families and teachers may better cooperate in the education of children.

Advocate for leadership and legislation that secures adequate protection and an excellent education for all children.